Program for June 5th

This month's speaker will be Phil Rudin, Professional photographer and long time president of the South Florida Underwater Photography Society. His previous presentation on diving in Alaska under the ice and the trip up the coast from Washington was well received.

This month Phil will give a presentation on Underwater Thailand and land trip to Thailand, and Angkor Wat in Cambodia the largest religious temple in the world. Don't miss this great travel presentation.

June 25th (Wednesday) join USAers for a Turtle Walk at Gumbo Limbo Nature Center in Boca Raton.

Our group will meet at 7:00 PM for dinner and drinks at Flanigan's Guppy's Bar & Grill in Boca Raton. From there it's a short drive north on A1A to Gumbo Limbo Nature Center

Hospitality Hut

Greetings from the Hospitality Hut Gals! As the ocean temperatures are heating up, so is the activity in the "Hut".

We are happy to report that the flyers in the Force-E Dive Shop directed Jamie and Roy Caswell to our May meeting. Jamie is a new diver and Roy has been diving since 1998.

Diana Rudnick came to us from an ad in "The Pelican" newspaper. Diana was certified in the 1980's in New York.

Robert Bettarel saw the USA advertisement in the local newspaper. Robert is not currently a diver, but he does have a BOAT. Julie and Clare extended him a warm welcome. Hopefully, we can convince him that it is never too late to try something new!!

We welcomed return guests Wayne Lindeman, Jodi McMasters and Karl Dickey. We introduced Judy, a reporter, from "The Pelican" Newspaper. Judy attended our meeting to cover Cory Walter's presentation "BleachWatch".

Please be sure click on the calendar button for details regarding our club's upcoming local and overseas dive trips along with our numerous non-diving social events. You may take a peek at many of our past diving and non-diving club activities by clicking on the photo gallery button. You'll see lots of happy faces in the photo gallery.

USA welcomes our newest members and guests and wish "Happy Diving" to all.
